

Universität
Basel

Research Project

Somatic presentations of mental disorders

Project funded by own resources

Project title Somatic presentations of mental disorders

Principal Investigator(s) Lieb, Roselind ;

Co-Investigator(s) Meinlschmidt, Gunther ;

Organisation / Research unit

Departement Psychologie / Klinische Psychologie und Epidemiologie (Lieb)

Project start 01.05.2008

Probable end 31.12.2011

Status Completed

This project is involved in the controvers discussion and critical evaluation of the diagnostic position of somatoform disorders in the DSM. Aims are to examine prevalence and incidence of somatoform symptoms and syndromes, their comorbidity, risk factors, impairment and healthcare as well as to explore a dimensional approach to diagnosing somatoform disorders.

Keywords somatoform disorders, chronic pain, medically unexplained symptoms, classification, phenomenology, clinical presentations, nosology, epidemiology

Financed by

University funds

Other funds

Add publication

Add documents

Specify cooperation partners