

Universität
Basel

Research Project

African Pentecostalism, Politics and Public Space

Project funded by own resources

Project title African Pentecostalism, Politics and Public Space

Principal Investigator(s) Heuser, Andreas ;

Organisation / Research unit

Fachbereich Theologie / Aussereuropäisches Christentum (Heuser)

Project start 01.02.2013

Probable end 31.12.2016

Status Completed

This project focuses on African Pentecostalism with respect to its socio-political dimensions. The research is based on empirical studies primarily undertaken in Ghana. Recent dynamics of a "Pentecostalization" of African Christianity come into play, and the pentecostalizing impact of African religious and public spheres as well. However, most important constituents of research are the transnational networks from which pentecostal movements sediment into wider public arenas and into migrant Christianity.

Keywords Pentecostalism, Ghana, transnational networks

Financed by

University funds

Add publication

Add documents

Specify cooperation partners