The Basler Edition der Bernoulli-Briefwechsel (BEBB) has the aim of publishing a full online edition of the letters exchanged by the mathematicians and physicists Daniel Bernoulli (1700-1782), Jacob I Bernoulli (1654-1705), Jacob II Bernoulli (1759-1789), Johann I Bernoulli (1667-1748), Johann II Bernoulli (1710-1790), Nicolaus I Bernoulli (1687-1759), Nicolaus II Bernoulli (1695-1726), and Jacob Hermann (1678-1733) with over 400 correspondents, many of them of world renown. The Bernoulli correspondence represents a central part of the scientific network of the 17th and 18th century and is an essential text source for the study of western intellectual history, particularly of the history of mathematics and physics.
