Title Estoy llenita de agua: Caring for Infrastructural Belonging in Cartagena

Journal Roadsides

Volume 9

Pages / Article-Number 8-16

Keywords Infrastructure, Colombia, Cartagena, Gender, Belonging, Care, Wetland

Weaving together the stories of women's efforts to 'resuscitate' rubble as building material, Silke Oldenburg and María Buelvas show how gendered labor and care practices in Cartagena have complex effects on women's bodies, communities and belonging in the city.
